Biographical and Other Notes

Born in Capetown, South Africa, he moved to London in the 1960s to become a photographic apprentice. He returned to South Africa in 1973 to run the family coal distribution business until it was sold in 1996. He had two hobbies – numismatics and photography which were combined in The Art of Coins and Their Photography in 1991. He set up a publishing business and also mastered wildlife photography.
