-- Complete confusion. The catalogues, dating from 1866, are not overtly numbered; but from 1910, if not earlier, a numbered sequence within the back cover is offered for sale beginning with no. 1 as November 1899. These are presumably simply shop-numbers; or perhaps, as Spring suggests, a new seriation following on the change of the firm's direction to Merzbacher Nachfolger.

For the overall seriation, that proposed by Tietjen 20, 10 November 1976, is faulty, (a) in that he omits the first four sales and begins with 7 May 1894, our no. [5]; and (b) in an error of numeration, omitting no. 18.

For an attempt at working through the confusion see John Spring, Ancient coin auction catalogues, 1880-1980 (London, 2009), 160, pointing out that "Merzbacher Nachfolger" did not consistently follow "Merzbacher" in the early 1900s. But Spring himself deliberately omits the Seyfffer sales of 1891 in his own seriation.

Lubeseder's single sequence of all the auctions is followed here.
