March 1943

Henry VI. Heavy Silver coinage.

My collection of this series consists of over 300 different coins and includes many rarities. I made considerable purchases at the Walters sales of 1913 and 1932 and a large number were formerly in the Heck Webb and Montagu collections. I spent over two months going through the very extensive stock of this reign belonging to Messrs Baldwin & Sons and also the private collection of the late Mr A. St. Baldwin and purchased a considerable number of them. Many were originally in the Stamford and Hampshire hoards.

Mr. C. A. Mutton (BNJ vols for 1938–41) list some 698 die combinations and after the British Museum collection I believe mine to the next best and one in the whole of former preservation as I have always tried to get together the best specimens when ever I could.

R. C. Lockett.
